And don't forget: you don't have any proof. - So what! he said desperately. - And if you have? I'm still going to interrogate you, in my own way. You know that I can do it. - Yes I know. I nodded. - I know you can do it. But you know that I don't. I said nothing. - What? he demanded. - I don't. - I replied. - But it's possible. - It's possible, he agreed. And after a short pause, he added, - But you don't. There was silence. He was right.
